

Imagine • Discover • Explore

Get Unstuck!

Conquering Roadblocks in Your Genealogical Search

Saturday, July 18
10:30a.m. - 12:30p.m.

Farioly Program Room

Every researcher runs up against roadblocks at one time or another. We blame the ancestor, the paper trail-or lack of it- but do not hold ourselves responsible. Genealogy is problem solving over and over again for every generation. We must learn and re-learn, rethink the problem.

Coordinated by:

It is within us to overcome roadblocks once we focus on the process, the resources and the times of our ancestors.

Presenter: Tom Howard is a professional genealogist, a sociologist, teacher and lecturer, will provide insights and humor to show us how.

 Danbury Library

170 Main Street
Danbury, CT 06810
203.797.4505

danburylibrary.org

FREE! No registration. For more information contact Librarian John O'Donnell at 203-797-4527.

Visit CT Ancestry Society online @ connecticutancestry.org