

Imagine • Discover • Explore

Sinatra and Me: The Very Good Years

Wednesday, July 29
5:30 - 7:00p.m.

Farioly Program Room

Join Pulitzer-nominated writer Franz Douskey in a discussion of his book Sinatra and Me: The Very Good Years. He'll talk about fascinating stories from Tony Consiglio, Sinatra's closest friend.

Franz Douskey has been published in hundreds of magazines, and anthologies, including the Nation, the New Yorker and Rolling Stone. His book, West of Midnight, was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in poetry in 2012.

Mr. Douskey has read at the University of Georgia, the Donnell Library (with F. D. Reeve), the Cronkite Graduate Center at Harvard, Yale University, Goddard College, New York University (Albany), University of Arizona, and the New School of Social Research, among others. He occasionally read with Allen Ginsberg, who was a long time friend and correspondent.

FREE! REGISTRATION REQUIRED online at danburylibrary.org, click on "Events" or call 203-797-4527. For more information contact Yan Toma at 203-797-4505, ext. 243.

Danbury Library

170 Main Street
Danbury, CT 06810
203.797.4505

danburylibrary.org