

MEET & GREET!

COREAN STRONG
AUTHOR OF "ALL GOD'S CHILDREN GOT SHOES"

Saturday, January 27
2:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Farioly Program Room

Corean Strong is a native of Vicksburg, MS. She moved to the Northeast in 1977 to work for IBM and now resides in Danbury, CT. Corean has a passion for the arts. She is founder and CEO of NaeRoc Productions, a Christian theatre company. She has written numerous plays and skits including her full length gospel musical, "All God's Children Got Shoes". This play has been off Broadway twice and was first place winner in the Agape Film and Theater Awards. It is this play from which Corean based her new book bearing the same name.

The book, "All God's Children Got Shoes", has received very encouraging reviews. The book talks about life in a creative and engaging format. It prompts you to think about your own life and what you could change to make yourself a better person. Like the play, it is very thought provoking and is capable of changing lives.

Books Will Be Available for Purchase and Signed.
Enjoy light refreshments.

FREE! REGISTRATION IS ENCOURAGED online at danburylibrary.org, click on "Visit" and "Programs/Events" or call 203.797.4505, ext. 7730