Women in the American Revolution:

Saturday, March 10

2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Anna Maria Lane? Sally St. Claire? Elizabeth Zane? Do any of these names sound familiar?

In this PowerPoint presentation, Eric Chandler will introduce you to some of the women who risked their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor to lift the yoke of British control of the 13 Colonies between 1775-1783. Many of these valiant women are missing from history books leaving their stories as soldiers and spies left untold.

About the Presenter:

Eric Chandler has been involved in American Revolutionary War Living History since 1974. Mr. Chandler has portrayed infantry, light infantry, whale-boat raider and both mounted and dismounted dragoons. He is a resident of Norwalk, CT.
