

What's the difference between a Therapy Dog, Emotional Support Dog and a Service Dog?

Dogs have been a source of constant companionship and support to people for centuries.

People often times confuse these three separate assistance animals by lumping them all together. Each type of assistance animal has a different level of access and different levels of training.

Come learn the difference between these dogs that assist people in a variety of different capacities.

Monday, September 10

Time: 1:00pm

Logan, a Pet Partners Certified Therapy Dog will be on hand for visits after the presentation.

Presented by Susan Tomanio, LCSW. Ms. Tomanio holds a post graduate certificate in Animal Assisted Therapy.
